Nervous

Author's Notes:
I try to overcome my writing blockade and this is an attempt to do this, so I'm sorry if it sucks.

He can't stop shaking. He just can't. He feels like throwing up and his hands are cold and sweaty. What if he fucks up? What if he's not good enough? He's just a replacement, not even a real part of the band. He can't do this.

Someone touches his shoulder and he flinches. As he looks up through his dark curls he sees James standing next to him.

"Hey, are you okay?" James looks worried. "Sure." He tries to grin but fails. James smiles encouragingly and gives him a soft kiss. "They're gonna love you, just like I do."
